As Time Goes By:

As Freshmen, we entered the halls of Lincoln wondering what to expect, listening to the bells telling us that class had started and we were lost and late Time seemed to move so slowly. We had so much to learn, it seemed forever until we learned our way. We were shy, we didn't have cars, and the Seniors booed and picked on us. Sophomores, time became our friend, we began to have social lives, went to games, and cheered our hearts out. As Juniors, we started to drive and made friends. We raced through time. Dating, games, school, counseling, career choices, college choices all became a blur in our race to be Seniors. Now as Seniors we look back on our years at Lincoln and see how we have grown and matured. Well, at least some of us have. Memories flood our minds as we face the uncertain and often frightening future. We remember the victories and the defeats, the Homecoming spirit that could out do anyone, our first legalized Tee-Pee night, and most of all we remember the friends we've made and the everlasting memories.....So come and walk with us a while and share, as we walk through the halls of Lincoln once again.....As Time Goes By.

Starting clockwise from top: The Rails Key Club brought back the tradition of the Homecoming float. Mike Luna and Torrey Thomas hang the Huskies. Yearbook Staff was interrogated after the First Legal Tee-Pee night. Honest Abe pumps up the crowd. Varsity Cheerleaders snuggle with Abe. Who's Erica Fogue trying to fool? Ron Hyde shows off his 'do' on Hippie Day. Homecoming Queen Darcy Wolver and King Mike Luna. Erica Ridnour and Laura Jensen stick together on Twin Day.

From Clockwise at top: Haley Vermie, Matt Steward, Brian Deets and Brian Ballinger show their Hy-Vee pride for Twin Day. Where's that helpful smile in every aisle guys? Vanessa Morlan, Danielle Jeffries, and Angel Gilbert show off their dates Colt Valenti, Shawn Wilson, and Jeff Clayton. What a catch! Matt Lohrman looks stem and dashing in his conductor's uniform at the Homecoming game. Karen Davis and Valerie Vincent- are they passing notes or studying? Lincoln football players get rowdy before the Homecoming Game against the Hoover Huskies. Susan Chaney "wails" on her saxophone. Missy Lohrman, Mindy Gomez, Mandy Fetters, and Megan Rand huddle outside on Spirit Day. Tom Thompson and Lacey Bartling are trying to start their own style on Hippie Day. The "Rails Key Club" is very happy about getting out of class to decorate the Homecoming field. Tony Zika demonstrates to Travis Cox the correct way to......uh......mop.

As Time Goes By..... Traditions stay the same

Once again the students of Lincoln High took a bit of time out of their rigorous academic schedules to engage in a little frivolity known as Homecoming Week. This time around the students favored us with a glimpse into the past with Hippie Day, showed us familiar faces with Famous Person Day, led us in groups of two through Twin Day and onto Spirit Day, sporting maroon and gold. Most showed their respect and wore their best on Dress Up Day. Homecoming 1993 was a chance for the seniors to have one last fleeting moment to show the spirit they have acquired over four years. For the underclassmen, it was a lesson in tradition to be carried on in years to come. Mike Luna and Darcy Wolver were crowned king and queen in a rousing coronation ceremony, in which the Cheerleaders teamed up with the Railettes in a synchronized dance made for the special occasion.

Beginning a great tradition

The Varsity Cheerleaders had a successful year. They began by attending cheer camp at ISU in July, where they received a bid to travel to Dallas, Texas in December and compete in the National Cheerleading Competition. The fall months were filled with cheering football games and preparing for Nationals. In December the squad traveled to Dallas for the much anticipated competition. The squad finished in the top half of the Large Varsity Division which consisted of over 60 squads. It was the first time for the Lincoln Cheerleaders to compete in this competition and it was an exciting accomplishment. They returned to cheer the basketball teams and the wrestling team on to a great season. They also showed outstanding school spirit by helping plan and participate in pep assemblies. The Cheerleaders came a long way this year and hope to continue the great tradition.

The Railettes have had a very successful year. They went to State competition in Marshalltown, competing in pom, prop, and co-ed divisions. In January they were off to the Midwest Regionals in Sioux City, Nebraska. They rounded off the year successfully with 'Railette Rythm.' Senior Laura Jensen said "I'm going to miss everyone a lot. We had a very talented and close group this year."

Band marches onward toward honor and glory

The Railsplitter Marching Band completed another successful year, led by Drum Major Matt Lohrman and Field Conductor Amy Kauzlarich. The band led a long year with contests such as Valleyfest, State Contest as well as the Pella Tulip Festival. They journeyed to Chicago where they competed in both Concert Band and Jazz Band competitions, placing high while enjoying the sights such as the Sears Tower and the Hard Rock Cafe.

The Marching Band split into its two principal parts, Concert Band and Wind Ensemble, early into the year. These two smaller groups went to numerous concert contests throughout the year and put on winter and spring concerts at Lincoln. The Jazz Bands also put on concerts, played often at Drake basketball games and at our own pep rallies.

Jazz Bands finish year in triumph and glory

Jazz I and Jazz II was successful yet again last year. by going further and placing higher than they ever had before. Both bands achieved their highest placement ever in the South Central Iowa Band Master's Association, and Richard Wolfe led Jazz I on to grab third place at UNI jazz band competition, where Andrew Hansen and Jazz II received a rating of II. Overall, Jazz I went to five contests, and Jazz II attended three. Both bands combined to form the Pep Band, the group that could be seen playing songs such as Paul Simon's "You Can Call Me Al," Alice Cooper's "School's Out," and the rousing "Hey Song" at numerous pep assemblies and home basketball games. This group performed at over five home games, and they were special guests at three of Drake University's basketball games.

"I am very pleased with the year in general," said Wolfe.
"We improved a lot, and there's a lot of good things happening. I hope to have a group like this next year."

Student Council hits new high

Student Council had a very successful year filled with community involvement and many activities, including the 2nd Annual Talent Show. Members also held drives to collect canned food, clothes and money for the homeless. The group's annual blood drive was held in the school library. This year the Student Council redesigned the representative system and also participated in an all day student exchange with Pella High School.

Conflict Managers keep peace at LHS

Conflict Management has continued to make an impact at Lincoln High School. Many conflicts have been resolved by the student conflict managers, without adult intervention. The managers hosted a City-wide Conference for managers from other high schools. Lincoln's management model was presented to a conflict management class at Central College in Pella. In addition, various managers have represented Lincoln at middle schools and other presentations. The skills that Conflict Managers learn are directed toward helping their peers solve problems without adult intervention. These same skills are utilized by the managers in their own lives.

Peer Helpers I: (first row) Laura Jensen, Keisha Cox, Mai Ung (second row) Rami Dougherty, Holly Chiles, Erica Fogue, Mari Swift, Charity Chapman (third row) Dusty Taylor, Eric Swanson.

Peer Helpers

The Peer Helpers have had a wonderfully exciting year. They have spent most of their time working with kindergartners through fifth graders at Mitchell Elementary School. Peer Helper Shawn Wilson praised the Mitchell youngsters by saying, "They are a big definition of cute!" Next year's Peer Helpers will proudly carry on the well appreciated community service. FUTURE

The Future Generations Club is a multicultural organization that is dedicated to implementing activities that will promote unity, cultural awareness, respect, and understanding at Lincoln High School. Future Generations has worked hard to bring the student body together. They sponsored "ribbon day" to promote unity and cultural awareness, as well as many other productive projects.

Drug Free Athletes/TLC is an organization assigned primarily to provide activities that are substance free. The group sponsored the Senior/Faculty basketball game, visits to elementary schools, the All School Volleyball Tournament at Sands and has attended Drug Free Conferences.

Rails Key Club has spirit

Rails Key Club is a school service organization that is sponsored by the downtown Kiwanis and the Lincoln sponsor is Sue Angell.

Key Club was responsible for decorating the homecoming field, and pinning carnations on the football players. Key Club president Jennifer Gracey commented about the Homecoming float. "I wanted to bring back the tradition of having a massive Homecoming float that everyone could enjoy. It was a lot of hard work putting it together, but it was definitely worth it."

During the year the club participated in the Des Moines Paint-a-thon, Special Olympics, and went on Halloween and Easter visits to local day care centers and hospitals. The Key Club provides the "Buzz Book" every year and also sponsors the Sweetheart Dance. The theme of the dance this year was "Enchantment Under The Sea" and the Roundhouse was transformed into an aquatic paradise featuring Opaline the Octopus.

National Honor Society enlightens the community

The National Honor Society prospered this year under the direction of Mrs. Van Tuyl. Starting at the beginning of the year, the group helped both the school and the community. In the Fall, they painted a house for the citywide Paint-A-Thon. This was an enjoyable experience for the group and it brought them closer together. They also helped serve food at the Bethel Mission several times and made crafts with ill children at Blank Childrens Hospital. New members were also initiated in an elegant and lush banquet at the Willow Creek Country Club. The group also gave away a $500 scholarship to a non-member. Colt Valenti, President, spoke of the group "I was moved by how everyone worked together despite their different social conditions. I almost cried at how well we all cooperated together and made something of this year. Hopefully next years group will continue the strong traditions started today."

Math/Science Club Thrives

The Math/Science Club had a lot of fun dealing with different areas of study. Some of the group's activities included taking the ASTMA test together and exploring the depths of fractals. The group topped off the year by winning the Drake Quiz Bowl Competition. Member Casey Reynolds commented, "It was a very enjoyable activity. It really makes you think!" The group had a blast this year and hope that Math/Science Club continues to grow and thrive.

Environmental Club founded

Students concerned about the environment formed a new club this year. Highlights of the year included recycling the school's refuse, taking part in the Earth Day Fair at Merle Hay Mall, a pancake breakfast, and a Battle of the Bands which took place in the gym on May 7. The group also aligned themselves with the Des Moines Area Greens, a nationwide organization and participated with them in several events. The Environmental Club did much for Lincoln this year, but have higher hopes for the future. Said Liz Seals, President, "This is our first year. We have accomplished a lot, but hope to grow next year."

Debaters have a successful year

The Lincoln High Debate Team completed a highly successful '93-'94 season. The members of both the Varsity and Junior Varsity Policy Debate teams: Varsity debaters Brad Baker, Blaine Clark, Geoff French, and Jennifer Notch; Novice debaters Anthony Bateza, Marinee Dresback, Janiece Genovese, Shakir Mohamed, Mehul Media. Tom Reasoner, and Libey Ritchhart all advanced to the tournaments this year. Anthony Bateza and Mehul Media advanced to the State Tournament in Policy.

Lincoln-Douglas debaters Angela Brommel, Steve Christman, Selena Edmondson, and David Kufner also reached elimination rounds. Angela Brommel was selected to represent Iowa at the National Tournament in Kansas City. Chad Sites and Elise Gustafson also took part in the National Tournament, with Chad participating in Humorous Interpretation, and Elise in Drmatic Interpretation.

Competitors in the individual events category include: Brad Baker, Anthony Bateza, Angela Brommel, Steve Christman, Mehul Media. Allison McConnell, Shakir Mohamed, Jennifer Notch, Libey Ritchhart, Kristen Shelley, and Amanda Wadle. Kristen Shelley and Gary Dickey both took part in the American Legion Oratory contest earlier this year. Gary advanced to the county competition, and Kristen advanced to the state competition.

Two Mock Trial teams successfully won District and Regional tournaments and represented Lincoln at state competition. Members include Tabbatha Bailey, Brad Baker, Anthony Bateza, Steve Christman, Gary Dickey, Eric Dickson, Selena Edmondson, Geoff French, Tana Hart, Dennis Howard, Susie Khounxay, Mehul Media, Shakir Mohamed, Jennifer Norton, Crystal Price, Tom Reasoner, and Kristen Shelley.

Mock Trial wins second in state

'Reckless Disregard' was the argument used by Mock Trial Team B in their second place finish at state. The competition was sponsored by the Drake University Law and Civic Education Department. There were one hundred and sixty-five teams entering the competition. The B Team advanced to the finals after defeating a host of competitors. In the final trial the young B Team lost by one point in a split ballot. Composed of freshmen and sophomores, the B Team includes Tom Reasoner, Eric Dickson, Shakir Mohamed, Dennis Howard, Anthony Bateza, Tabbatha Bailey, Mehul Media, and Tana Hart.

Dorian Art, led by President Robin Dickson, Secretary Gay Bardwell, Treasurer Kate Pham, and Historian Maggie Holmes, participated in the Senior High Art Exhibit at the Des Moines Art Center and Youth Art Month at the State Historical Building. They also visited the Des Moines Women's Club art show and the Andy Warhol exhibit at the Art Center, followed by trips to various art galleries. Dorian Art sponsored its third art fair on May 20, various works of different media were displayed throughout the day. Dana Schaffer, a computer specialist, along with several members designed Art Fair t-shirts and also contributed to school spirit by decorating for the Homecoming dance and providing the hall decorations for Christmas.

Lincoln Drama has exceptional year

Drama at LHS in '93-'94 offered more opportunity to perform than ever before. The activities took Thespians and Drama Club members to Cedar Falls. Minneapolis, and New York City. Performances included improvisation, a murder mystery, contest events, a children's show, mime performances, student directed one act plays, and an elaborate Shakespearean production. Several students also went to the All State Competition this year. This means that from September 1 through May 30 over one hundred students were involved in Lincoln High Theatre. Drama is indeed alive and well at Lincoln and growing. Mrs. Vanderhoef, Drama Director, elaborated, "This was an outstanding year for Drama. This senior class was unique and exceptional not only in the members involved, but the excellent quality on and off stage. I will miss them."

Lincoln enjoyed another year with students from our sister school in Naucalpan, Mexico. The Mexican students visited Lincoln in October and the Lincoln students went to Mexico over Spring Break. It is hard to describe the joy that was shared and the many lessons that were learned by such an experience.

Things started off on the right foot, as Lincoln students left two days before the beginning of spring vacation, and immediately, upon arrival, began a lifestyle of late nights and early risings for tours of the cultural centers of the vast city. Student trips during the week included the pyramids of Teotihuacan, the silver mining town of Taxco, the Museum of Anthropology, the National Palace where the president has his offices, and the Ballet Folklorico.

Students experience cultural awareness

Foreign Exchange Students came from all over the world this year, from Germany, Mexico, Sweden and Japan.

"One thing I will always remember about Lincoln is the great school spirit and the support for the different activities", says Mexican exchange student Rene Ferraris. "I think Lincoln is a great school with a good level of education. The teachers are very nice and helpful. The students were very friendly."

During Rene's third week of school, something embarrassing happened. He was walking into class and another student tried to tell him something. Rene didn't understand until she pointed and he realized his zipper was undone. With a big smile and a red face, he said "Gracious!"

GYI

A world of ideas were in the air the summer of '93 (despite the flood.) The Global Youth Institute, held in Des Moines, was a success. Eleven students from Lincoln, East, and North participated in GYI with 17 international students from Australia, Germany, Russia, Austria, Brazil, and Taiwan. Lincoln participants were Erica Fogue, Becky Kessel, Tracy Leib, Valerie Owens, Rami Dougherty, and Rick Blackford. Next years students selected to go to Australia with GYI are Joanna Marusienski, Amy Rich, Linda West, Rick Blackford, Andrew Earhart, and Charles Mutchler.

Toke Pride in DM"

Committee Sale

Lincoln has participated in the "Take Pride In Des Moines" contest for the past four years. Awards won by Lincoln students this year are: Carrie Larson-1st place art; Katie Ray-3rd place poetry; Tennille Mapes-3rd place essay; Melanie Blair-3rd place art; Mark Weaver-poetry; and Jessica Maldonado-3rd place art.

Committee Select is a diverse group of Lincoln students and faculty. They have addressed issues such as closed campus, the patio, vandalism, school lunches, passing periods, and many other important matters. The group has been very successful and is an asset to Lincoln High School.

U.N. Trip '94

Ninety juniors from the Des Moines Metro Area were chosen to go on the U.N. Trip through application, leadership, and academic abilities, and essays submitted. From our school Trish Vanderley was chosen to attend while Miss Elliott was chosen to chaperone. They traveled by bus on March 19 to New York for three days. The group visited the U.N., Statue of Liberty, Ellis Island and more. Next, the crew drove to Washington D.C. for three more days. They met our congressmen, visited the White House, Ford Theatre, Mount Vernon, and other fantastic sights. Junior Trish Vanderley quoted "I wanted to go on this trip because it was a chance to meet new people and visit New York and D.C."

Young Writer's Conference

In February, the following Lincoln students, Mike Burton, Rami Dougherty, Erica Fogue, William Goddard, Robin Holmes, Jamie Parker, Eddie Randall, Chad Swigert, Trish Tanney, Pam Trollope, and Chris Villalobos attended the Young Writer's Conference at Drake University. They each read a selection they had written and attended workshops on various aspects of writing.

Lincoln takes 'Time'

Inspired by the theme, "As Time Goes By," the white leather cover features a gold pocket watch which symbolizes the time spent at Lincoln, with the maroon ink to show school colors. The cover was designed by Senior Art Student Chris Pruisner.

The theme of "time going by" is carried throughout the yearbook on the division and underclass pages, pictured with watches. Advisor Dave Bullis and Editors-in-Chief Jennifer Gracey and Jon Walter guided a staff of twenty-one. The staff missed a few deadlines but with a lot of hard work and co-operation, the book is done.

"After all the problems were worked out, everyone put forth a wonderful team effort in producing a great yearbook," quotes Editors Jennifer Gracey and Jon Walter.

Led by Editor-in-Chief Chad Sites and Advisor Dave Bullis, the 20-member Railsplitter staff had a very successful year. They put out nine issues, four of which were done in an eight page format. This was a big change from the traditional four page paper. The staff also went to Pagemaker, a computer software package, to design and layout the newspaper. This caused quite a few problems, frustrations, and errors. However, the staff was able to work through all the problems of mastering the program, and had a really great learning experience.

"Overall, I feel good about the year we've had, even though we experienced a few low points, I'm proud to say that we made some groundbreaking advances. Some of my staff members will never get the true credit that they deserve, and I appreciate the extra hours and hard work that they put in," commented Editor-in Chief Chad Sites.

Robin Dickson, front page editor, also added, "This year's staff worked very hard to put out a good newspaper that the student body could enjoy. Since we changed the style and format of the paper, we've had to work through a number of problems. I 'm proud that we were able to overcome them and accomplish our goal of a quality paper."

Baseball Ends With Successful Season

The 1993 Lincoln Baseball Team had one of the best seasons in the history of the school. They won the CIML American Conference Championship for the 1st time since 1965. They were champions of the Urbandale tournament and the District Tournament. The team was rated No. 7 in the final regular season poll. The final season record was 28-12. The following players received awards at the end of the season. Paul Strome: 1st Team All-State Infielder, 1st Team All-Conference, and M.V.P. IBCA All-Star Game. Dennis Sexton: 2nd Team All-State Pitcher, and 1st Team All-Conference. A.J. Russo: 2nd Team All-Conference Utility. Cory Hill: 2nd Team All-Conference Catcher. Tom Fanter: 2nd Team All-Conference Outfielder.

Women Linksters putt a successful season

Our girls golf team, according to Coach Schartner, we had an "outstanding season, one of the best ever," this past spring. Led by juniors Katie Shelley and Angie Koll the team carded a dual meet record of 5-1.

Both Shelley and Koll, along with eleventh grader Tina Mills and freshman Amanda Bricker were awarded top 14 medals in the C.I.M.L. Conference Tournament where our linksters finished runnerup to conference champs and state qualifier, Roosevelt.

In state competition the team managed to qualify for Regional play but once again ended up finishing second to cross-town foe, Roosevelt.

With senior Kristen Shelley the only player not returning from this year's squad, Schartner hopes the team will be a strong contender for the conference championship and a birth in the state meet next year. "It will take a lot of hard work on the part of the players this summer," says Schartner, "but I'm sure we have the potential to be really good next year."

The girls cross country team showcased the season with a first place finish at the Kindy's Classic in Urbandale, highlighted by a first place finish by Sarah Lemley. The team then finished first overall in the Triangular Meet in S.E. Polk. The girls then capped off the season with a third place finish at the conference meet in Indianola and ended the season placing seventh at districts in Marshalltown. The team showed improvement throughout the season, showing a promising future for the next few years.

Boys Cross country Gains Experience

The Boys Cross Country Team had a difficult schedule this year with only underclass runners returning. They had a solid season recording many personal best times. The team gained respect for their unbending commitment to win. They also attained much needed experience this season, and there is a promising future for the runners, as they look forward to next year.

Girl's volleyball team has winning season finishing third in conference

The Spiker's finished Third in conference play this season with an overall record of four wins and three losses. "The first part of the season started off kind of slow, but then we started winning a little bit more and having alot more fun," commented Junior Richelle Smith. This years young team survived a tough schedule, competing well in all their matches. The team was led by Senior Elizabeth McCloney, Junior Belynda Terry, and Sophomore Hali Longden, all three made honorable mention in the All Metro Conference this season. The Spikers were competitive all season with an overall match record of 13-23. The team ended the season with a strong finish placing second at North High School's volleyball tournament. The spikers have high hopes for next season. Sophomore Sarah Nizzi commented, "It was a fun year, but next year I expect to achieve alot more, hopefully going to state." Other highlights of the year were individual statistics: most kills- Richelle Smith - 127, most sets- Belynda Terry - 451, most digs - Belynda Terry - 105, most blocks -Hali Longdon - 32, and best serving percentage by Sara Summy with 93%.

J.V. team wins conference title

The J.V. and J.V. reserve volleyball teams had an excellent season, which included the J.V. team winning the conference championship. Both J.V. and J.V. reserve teams dominated their conference, competing well in all their tournaments throughout the season. The J.V. team finished their season with an impressive overall record of 6-1. They look forward to a wonderful season next year, hopefully winning their second consecutive conference championship. The freshmen volleyball coach Sandy Sears commented "We had a lot of girls come out this year and we look forward to next season." The Freshmen volleyball team looks forward for a great season next year.

Lincoln's Coaches Receive Awards

Both of Lincoln's basketball teams had great seasons this year, with some of the credit going to our coaches here at Lincoln. Boys basketball coach John LaBonia and girls basketball coach Jerry Schartner both were recognized with Coach of the Year honors. Coach John LaBonia was awarded the Metro Conference American League Coach of the year, along with his award for Iowa S.W. Dist. 4A Coach of the Year. Coach LaBonia commented "A lot of the credit should go to the rest of the coaching staff, they all did a wonderful job." Girls coach Jerry Schartner was also awarded Metro Conference American League Coach of the Year. In addition to this he also received Coach of the year honors from the Iowa Athletic Coaches Association, and the Iowa Basketball Coaches Association. Congratulations to the Lincoln Coaches for the great year of basketball they provided everyone this year.

Gridders finish up Heartbreaking season

It was a great year for Lincoln football as the Gridders, led by first team All State running back Miguel Luna, finished 6-3 which included two one point loses. Unfortunately, the Gridders missed out on the class 4-A playoffs for the second straight year.

After starting the season 2-1 with victories against Marshalltown and East, and a loss against Newton, the Gridders lost by one point in overtime to Southeast Polk setting their record back to 2-2.

After a Homecomming win against Hoover, the Gridders crushed arch-rival Dowling 41-7 for the first victory against Dowling since 1978. The following week the Gridders suffered a heartbreaking defeat to Indianola on a last minute touchdown which ruined their chances for the playoffs.

Lincoln's underclass freshman football team had a rough season with a record of 0-8-1. The highlight of the season was the tie against Hoover on homecoming. Coach Bob Avila said, "We had a great group of young men to work with. They gave us all they had every play and we hope they work hard in the weightroom and convince many friends to follow."

Tankers, Divers have a good building year

The girls' swimming team had a good season this year, along with a pretty good record. The team consisted of mostly freshman and sophomores, and were led by senior co-captains Summer Laws and Ann Harper. There were many freshmen that showed tremendous promise and the team is fired up for next season after a building year.

One major highlight this year was diver Angela Hennessy. Hennessy won the diving event in all dual meets and earned a spot at the state meet this year as a sophomore.

Junior Angela Fontanini said, "We had a lot of fun this year, and we should do even better next year. We have a lot of talent, and I know if we pull it together, we can beat almost anybody."

Grapplers send three to State

Lack of participants limited the capability of the Lincoln wrestlers this season. With no competitors in the lighter weights they had to forfeit many matches making it difficult to achieve much success in dual competition.

Although the team struggled through the season with a 3-15 record there were many individuals that were successful. The grapplers ended their season with a fifth place finish at the Conference meet at North on February 11. Sophomore Brian Shade captured the title at 189 while Sophomore Todd Buckland and Junior Ryan Davis captured 2nd place at 130 and Heavyweight.

At the district meet Buckland placed second at 130 pounds while Shade claimed the title at 189 pounds. Davis captured second place in the heavyweight division. All three qualified for state tournament. Todd Buckland's second place finish was the highest finish since Dick Bason captured the state title back in the 1964 tournament.

The grapplers look forward to many great seasons to come with the team consisting of only one senior.

Girls Threepeat as Conference Champs!

"One of the best!" That's the way coach Jerry Schartner described this years Varsity girls basketball team.

The Rails finished first in their conference and went undefeated in conference play for the second time since 1988 including a thrilling triple overtime victory at home against Dowling. The Rails have won their third consecutive conference title and dominated the conference with a smothering defense that was the best in the league.

The team was led this year by seniors Keisha Cox, Chandra Wescott, and Danielle Bagbey who were all named to the all-conference first team, and junior Alison Bricker who was named to the all-conference second team.

In the postseason, the Rails breezed by Johnston with a 45 point victory. In the next substate game against North, senior Danielle Bagbey outscored the opponents herself by setting a new school and conference record with 40 points while leading Lincoln to a 93 to 39 victory.

The Rails season came to an end in the final game of substate at the hands of Urbandale with a 53 to 48 loss. "It was a disappointing finish to an excellent year." coach Schartner commented. The girls finished up with a 20-1 record and the best winning percentage in the state. These were just a few of the highlights of another great season of Lincoln girls basketball.

Sophomores win CIML

The sophomore girls basketball team finished an outstanding year by being named the CIML champions. Many different players contributed throughout the season giving the team a 19-1 record. Coach Harrison commented "Many players contributed to the successful season and will be an important players on varsity teams of the future".

The freshman A-team had a similar season finishing up with a 14-3 record. The B-team played hard all season showing their competitivness.

Cagers win first Conference Championship in 13 years!

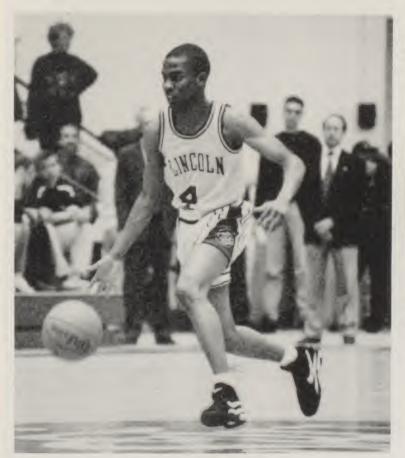

Swish, that was a common noise coming from the Lincoln High School Varsity boys basketball team this year. The Cagers expectations were high this year with strong leadership from returning starters Quentin Ferguson, Ryan Pippett, and junior Andrew Hill. Those expectations were fulfilled as the Cagers ended a thirteen year drought by winning the conference championship for the first time since 1981 in what was considered one of the toughest conferences in years.

By leading the Cagers to the conference title, coach John LaBonia was named coach of the year for the CIML American Conference. When asked about his award, he commented that "The whole coaching staff deserves credit."

The team started off to a slow start with a 1-3 record to begin the year. After the Cagers slow start, the team caught fire and quickly jumped to the lead in the conference. Coach LaBonia commented that "We started off slow, but we came on with a bang toward the end of the year." The Cagers did just that finishing up the rest of the year with a 14-3 record including incredible victories against Dowling and North. The season came to an end in the postseason with a 2 point loss to Valley in a well played game. The Cagers will look forward to next year with Andrew Hill and Frank Hiembaugh returning. Andrew Hill commented that "I think we'll have a great season next year, our AAU team just went to the State tournament in 17 and under, and we'll try our best to make it back to the State tournament again."

Boys Tennis Team Has Smashing Season

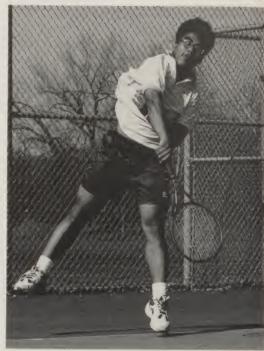

Although they graduated five of the six top players, the boys tennis team, once again, had an outstanding season. In singles play, juniors Bon Sihom, Matt Cole, and Brad Tamasi dictated the courts with winning records.

The doubles competition summed up just as well or better with a winning consistency that Lincoln is used to. The Derek Summy/Bon Sihom duo faired a 4-1 record in the number one spot, while the Tamasi/Cole combo earned their 4-0 record at the number two spot.

The Netters unfortunately missed competing in the State Competition by a one-point difference, however Coach VanWhy is looking ahead to next year. With this year's competitive juniors, '95's Netters should be a strong, talented team.

Girls Tennis Team Finishes Season With 10-1 Record

The girls tennis team wound up the 93-94 season placing second overall in the C.I.M.L. with an exceptional record of 10-1. Through the season, the team competed at various tournaments, winning the Cedar Rapids Kennedy and Lincoln tournaments, and placing as the runner up at the Atlantic tournament.

Aside from her undeafeated 9-0 record in singles competition, Robin Dickson teamed-up with Susie Miller for a 10-3 doubles record. Doubles teams Dickson/Miller, at the number one spot, and Daggett/Jones, in the number two spot, qualified for State competition. As a team, the girls finished in the top eight Regional finals.

Losing only one senior, next year's team is hoping to pick up where they left off. With hopes that everybody returns, the girls should be rather experienced and ready to win.

Principal Drake shares thoughts on school year

"Once again Lincoln students, staff, and parents have accomplished success. This success has been demonstrated in academics, activities, and athletics. Lincoln academics included National Merit and Commended students, and approximately 98 seniors with a grade point of 3.0 or higher. Staff members were nominated for prestigious awards and asked to present at State and National meetings. In activities and athletics, Lincoln students continue to excel. Lincoln had four All State vocal and instrumental students this year. Our Marching Band had their best year ever and the Jazz band was invited to State. Another highlight was the Lincoln Pep Band being selected to play at Drake University basketball games over the winter break. In athletics, All State football and basketball players, an undefeated girls basketball team, and the boys basketball team achieving their first conference championship since 1981 were a few of the highlights of our athletic teams. Lincoln parents continued to provide outstanding support through the Build Lincoln Higher Club, School Based Council, and P.T.S.A. Once again seniors will enjoy the after prom party due to parent and business support. Principal Financial, our business partner, provided financial and personnel assistance to our program. As Lincoln High moves into the year 2000, we are looking at new ways to use technology, a restructured school day and a redesigned building. A strong tradition will assure a bright future.'

Elections for the Senior Class Officers were held the week of October 18th. Those selected were Mari Swift, President; Erica Fogue, Vice-President - banquet; Torrey Thomas, Vice-President - prom; Todd Karpinski and Pam Trollope, Treasurers; Erica Ridnour and Darcy Wolver, class representatives.

The Senior Banquet was held at the Top of the Tower, downtown Holiday Inn on April 28th. The theme was "Hands of Time". Vice President Erica Fogue opened the program as Master of Ceremonies. Student speakers for the night were Ron Hyde, Tobin Ellis, Tracy Leib and foreign exchange student Renée Ferraris. The Senior Choir also sang three selections that coordinated with the theme.

The Senior Prom was held at Hotel Fort Des Moines May 14th; the theme was "Always and Forever". The color scheme was light pink, gold, dark pink and clear. During intermission, Ryan West and Megan Rand were drawn as Duke and Duchess, Chris Henderson and Maggie Holmes were Prince and Princess and Erik Swanson and Gay Bardwell won King and Queen.

For the third year in a row following prom was the post prom party. This party was sponsored by Build Lincoln Higher Booster Club and parent volunteers. The theme for the night was

"Hollywood Nights".

Class night took place on May 26th in the Bowen Roundhouse. Treasurer Todd Karpinski started the program, with the Pledge of Allegiance. Torrey Thomas welcomed the Senior Class and Mari Swift gave the traditional president speech. Erica Fogue handed down the class key to Kate Pham. Class representative Erica Ridnour was presented with the plaque. Class representative Darcy Wolver explained the ribbon cutting ceremony and Treasurer Pam Trollope explained the tradition of handing down the roses.

The final moment for the graduating class was Commencement which took place at Drake University Knapp Center on May 28th. Student speakers were Michael Armstrong, Chad Lewis, Jill Snover and Colt Valenti.

Innocence to the Age of Enlightment. We are all so very proud of you and all your accomplishments. It doesn't stop here--go for it all--it's yours for the taking. Congratulations
Honey! Love, Dad,
Mom, Kristy, and Jesse.

Torrey Thomas

From birth and to graduation are two of the proudest moments for a mother. There are not enough words to tell you how proud you have made me. You will be starting a new journey into manhood and enter a whole new world. The decisions you make from now on will impact your life forever. Believe in yourself because only you can achieve what life has to offer. Live each day to the fullest and each tomorrow will bring you closer to your goal. For all those times I forgot, I LOVE YOU. MOM.

Our Team Keeps Your Team Winning!

You might already recognize us. We're the team from Des Moines SportsMedicine Centers. We volunteer our services on the sideline of high school games in the Metro Conference — and have for 10 years. When players are injured, our licensed physical therapists and certified athletic trainers help get them back in the game. The next time you suffer a sidelining injury, give us a call. Sports Medicine will get you off the bench and back in the game in winning form. After all, the sideline is our position.

In Memory Of...

John

It is always hard to say goodbye, especially when someone leaves so suddenly. We will miss seeing you in the halls and talking with you after school. You were always so easy to get along with. We will always remember the fun times we had when we were younger. Even though you are gone we still consider you our close friend.

Your friends, Sam Thompson and Jayson Steele

John Donald Shreffler 1977-1994

He was a friend, always human when he talked, but still shy and quiet. He was rich, yet he did not know, rich in companions, sincerity, and laughter. But he believed life had taken him for granted, and we did not recognize a friend in need.

—J. Deal

In Loving Memory...

Christina Ann Weckman 1976-1994

Look to this day! For it is life, The very life of life. In its brief course Lie all the varieties And realities Of your existence. The bliss of growth, The glory of action, The splendor of beauty, For yesterday Is but a dream, And tomorrow Is only a vision; But today well lived Makes every yesterday A dream of happiness, And every tomorrow A vision of hope. Look well, therefore, To this day!

We, the editors of the 1993-1994 Railsplitter yearbook began the year with inspiration, motivation, and a large staff. We ended the year with inspiration, motivation, and a small staff full of dedicated hard workers. The roller coaster of visions was a long bumpy ride. Here it is, the results of nail-biting deadlines, staff disagreements, picture fiascos, late nights, and even an overnight adventure. The pages in this book are filled with pictures and words that will bring back memories of your years here at Lincoln, but you will have to provide the emotions.

We were privileged as editors to have worked with such an innovative staff and to have taught those who didn't quite know how to do layouts to those who wanted to learn. We greatly appreciate the energy and enthusiasm of those of you who contributed to this unique yearbook. What you are holding in your hands is part of history, not only because it documents time, but also because it contains the most pages a Lincoln yearbook has ever had including 16 full color pages which is due to our new innovative advisor, Dave Bullis, who helped the Journalism department grow into the future.

Jon and I wish to thank you Mr. Bullis for letting us be ourselves, giving us the power to delegate authority, speak our minds and experiment with new ideas. This book would not have been possible without you! Thank you!

To those of you on the staff: Thank you for putting up with me, correcting those copy errors that seemed minimal, and redrawing those layouts over and over. Erica, Laura, and Josh, thank you for being excellent section editors. Laurie and Mandy, I can't think of the words to express my deepest sincere thoughts for you two who really made this book work. You are greatly appreciated, I hope everyone who looks through the pages in this book will see your hard work and dedication on the parent ads, senior pages, and underclass pages. I thank you, Jon thanks you, and Abe thanks you.

When looking through this 31st annual Railsplitter, don't think about how long it took to produce. Instead, think about how long you will have to enjoy it for years to come, and how you will be able to share it with your children, and your children's children.
